

CURRICULUM VITAE 17March2013

Name: Joseph Neustein, MD

Date and Place of Birth: September 28, 1951, Brooklyn, New York

Personal: Married, five children. Spouse' occupation: CPA

Academic Preparation

College: Rutgers University, New Brunswick, NJ 1969-1972
Degree: Bachelor of Arts, Hebraic Studies

Medical School: University of Pennsylvania School of Medicine, Philadelphia 1973-1977

Academic Honors: Henry Rutgers Scholar 1972
Phi Beta Kappa 1972

Internship: Flexible, William Beaumont Army Medical Center, El Paso, TX 1977-1981

Residency: Orthopaedics, William Beaumont Army Medical Center, El Paso, TX 79978-1981

Specialty Certification: Diplomat American Board of Orthopaedic Surgery, September 10, 1982

Fellowship, American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons: January 1985

National License Certification: National Board of Medical Examiners – 1978
Federal Licensure Examination – 1978

State Licensure: Texas 1978- present
New Mexico 1985-2008
Florida 2007- present

Advanced Cardiac Life Support Certified – January 1985
Re-certified – November 2001

Basic Life Support for Physicians Certified - January 1985
Re-certified – November 2001

Advanced Trauma Life Support Certified (Instructor) – May 1983
Re-certified (Provider) – December 2001

Post Residency Assignment: U.S. Army Community Hospital (121 Evac Hosp) Seoul, Korea – 1981-1982

Previous Positions: Department of Orthopaedics and Rehabilitation, William Beaumont Army Medical Center Chief, Spine and Adult Reconstructive Service
Orthopaedic Consultant: U.S. Army health Fitness Center, 1982 – June 1985
Solo Orthopaedic Practice, El Paso, TX July 1985- February 2008
Orthopaedic Surgeon- Bethesda Medical Associates Boynton Beach, FL Sept 2008-Sept 2011

Current Position: Solo Orthopaedic Practice, Boynton Beach, FL Sept- 2011- present

Assistant Clinical Professor: Uniformed Services Health Services School of Medicine

Professional Organizations: Florida Medical Association
American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons